

MedCoPilot Clinical Report 2

Synthetic test report - not a real patient

SAMPLE CLINICAL REPORT 2 - FOR TESTING ONLY Not a real patient record

Patient Name:

Meera Iyer Age: 35 Sex: Female Report Date: 06-Apr-2026

Chief Complaint:

Lower abdominal pain for 2 days with nausea, vomiting, burning urination, and low-grade fever.

Medical History:

Recurrent urinary tract infection twice in the last year. No diabetes, hypertension, kidney disease, pregnancy, or prior abdominal surgery.

Current Medications:

Pantoprazole 40 mg once daily; Ondansetron 4 mg as needed; Oral rehydration solution after vomiting.

Allergies:

No known drug allergies.

Vitals:

BP: 118/76 mmHg; Pulse: 96 bpm; Temp: 100.4 F; SpO2: 98%; Weight: 62 kg; RBS: 108 mg/dL.

Lab Reports:

Urine pus cells 20-25/HPF; nitrite positive; leukocyte esterase positive; WBC 11800/uL; CRP 18 mg/L; Creatinine 0.8 mg/dL.

Diagnosis:

Suspected acute urinary tract infection with dehydration risk due to vomiting.

Doctor Comments:

Recommend urine culture, hydration, antipyretic support, and urgent review if flank pain, high fever, persistent vomiting, or reduced urine output develops.